

Thursday Morning Prayer
James Trivette 6.2.2011

Council of Truth

Shall I convene My council? Are you ready to take your place? For the world trembles and shakes and many are losing focus on the work of My Kingdom. Yet I have not lost focus, for it is I who is focusing the events of this season. Put your house in order so that you may be ready when the shofar sounds. For I am calling My council together in the tent of meeting. I have given you a place at My table. Will you be found ready when I enter the tent to reveal My plans, My strategies, and My tactics. For the world rulers have made their decisions and they will not repent unless they be stopped and exposed. It is time to raise up the standard. For the voice of truth must be heard.

Will you listen and discern? Will you declare My words? Will you stand to speak? Will you stand with Me and with one another?

The tyranny of today is no less than the tyranny of wars past, yet many are crying peace. But there is no peace without the light of truth. I am calling you to expose the deeds of darkness, for I am walking among the true lampstands that hold up My light of truth. For I did not come to make peace with darkness, but to bring the light.

John 1:4-5

In Him was life, and the life was the light of men. And the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it.