

That Which Was Promised

Are you ready to receive the promise. For He has come to reveal My presence, My power, and My glory. For these are the days of the Promise. For He is increasing as you are decreasing. For He is ready to declare My will and My purpose. Are you ready? What will you offer me today in sacrifice? Will you give up good for great and great for Glory? For I am opening the door to My Kingdom and you are that door. Will you reveal the glory of My Kingdom? Will you worship Me in Spirit and in Truth? For the world hungers for He who is the Spirit of Truth. Today I turn the water into wine for those that celebrate this holy day. Let the celebration begin, for the wine will not run out. For as you continue to fill the waterpots with the cleansing water of the word, I will continue to transform the water to the new wine of My presence. This is a new beginning in miracles for after today, you will never be the same.

Acts 2:15-17

These men are not drunk, as you suppose. It's only nine in the morning! No, this is what was spoken by the prophet Joel: "In the last days, God says, I will pour out my Spirit on all people. Your sons and daughters will prophesy, your young men will see visions, your old men will dream dreams.

Acts 2:37-40

When the people heard this, they were cut to the heart and said to Peter and the other apostles, "Brothers, what shall we do?"

Peter replied, "Repent and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins. And you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. The promise is for you and your children and for all who are far off-- for all whom the Lord our God will call." With many other words he warned them; and he pleaded with them, "Save yourselves from this corrupt generation."
