

Thursday Morning Prayer James Trivette 5.12.2011

The Stage is Set

The stage is set and the actors are ready to take the stage for the performance of their life. For I have set the stage and the actors of the evil one are rehearsing their lines. The whole world is watching. Truly, when has there ever been a time such as this? A hush moves across the hosts of heaven as expectation grows. The show is about to begin.

Though the vanity of arrogant men believe that this will be their finest hour, all who claim center stage will soon be eclipsed by yet another until the final beast appears.

But My Bride, the true Church, will do exploits and I will demonstrate My glory. For it is I who have set the stage and it is I who have written your script.

Prepare yourself for this day. For today you are waking to a new day. Not a day like yesterday. Not a day like any day before. For though My Kingdom is not of this world, you My church are still in this world. For you have received power to be my witnesses. To be the substance of hope and the evidence of My unseen Kingdom. But I will make known to the world My love, My wisdom, My power and My glory through you, My church. Though satan has desires to sift you like sand, I have prayed that your faith does not fail.

Be ready for the time of your visitation, for I desire to use you as a witness to the world in these days. Many things in yesterday's closet will not fit or are not fit for today. Buckle your armor and sharpen your sword. The giants await but secretly tremble in fear that today you will grasp who you are. Watch and pray and be ready for your moment as I gain the world's attention and focus it on you to declare the word of your testimony.

Rejoice and be glad. Your victory is assured. For this is THE DAY that the Lord has made. Rejoice and be glad in it. The stage on all creation awaits your appearing.

Ephesians 3:8-10

Although I am less than the least of all God's people, this grace was given me: to preach to the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ, and to make plain to everyone the administration of this mystery, which for ages past was kept hidden in God, who created all things. His intent was that now, through the church, the manifold wisdom of God should be made known to the rulers and authorities in the heavenly realms,
