

Shut the Door

Shut the door and keep out the devil. Ask Me and I will provide protection for you and your loved ones. For the enemy is on the prowl and seeking who he can use to disrupt the work I have commissioned, and to trouble those who have the mark of My presence. For the evil in this world is rising up to enflame the hearts of the weak and the fearful. But the spirits that drive them are subject to the authority of My name and I have given you this authority to silence them and send them away. For they seek that which is weak and that which they can terrorize. But let My peace and authority rest on you while you continue about My business, for they are sent to distract you as Sanballat troubled the work of Nehemiah. Continue to speak My words and My charge over My work and over those I have called into the work. For the peace and prosperity of your soul in the midst of their turmoil and threats is a witness to all who tremble in darkness. Even in these days, you shall receive power to be My witness, to demonstrate that I am God. Demonstrate that those that are mine have been given power to stand and flourish in the midst of the storms that terrorize the world. So demonstrate My love, My peace, and My joy in these days, for I have given you the stage and the spotlight and the curtain is rising.

Nehemiah 4:1-3

When Sanballat heard that we were rebuilding the wall, he became angry and was greatly incensed. He ridiculed the Jews, and in the presence of his associates and the army of Samaria, he said, "What are those feeble Jews doing? Will they restore their wall? Will they offer sacrifices? Will they finish in a day? Can they bring the stones back to life from those heaps of rubble-- burned as they are?" Tobiah the Ammonite, who was at his side, said, "What they are building-- if even a fox climbed up on it, he would break down their wall of stones!"
